

Biography

Mark Lovett, Director, CO-CIO European Equities

Mark joined in February 2002 and is responsible for the UK and European fund management teams in London and Frankfurt. Mark joined from Deutsche Asset Management where he was a Director within the UK and European institutional equity team responsible for managing balanced and high performance funds. Mark started his career at Baring Asset Management as an investment analyst before moving into portfolio management.

