

Biography

Peter Anderson, Chief Investment Officer, US Equities

Peter joined RCM in 2004. Peter is responsible for the direction and management of the San Francisco investment staff. He also participates in the management of RCM through his membership on the firm's Management Committee. Prior to joining RCM, Peter had established a consulting firm working closely with a major hedge fund. Peter's career began at American Express Investment Management in San Francisco in 1968 as an analyst and portfolio manager. In 1975, he joined The St. Paul Company where he headed a ten-member equity investment group, as well as running real estate and oil / gas investments. In 1982, Peter joined IDS/ American Express Financial Advisors (AEFA) where he ran the institutional asset management business. In 1990, Peter took on responsibility for all equity investments at AEFA. Four years later, he was promoted to Senior Vice President in charge of all equity and fixed income investments. In 1997, Peter became CIO of AEFA. In that role, he joined the company's senior management committee, as well as the board of American Express' mutual funds. Peter received his BA from Yale and his MBA from Wharton Graduate School.

